

Indiana University School of Medicine - Competency Appeal Process

If a student disagrees with an isolated deficiency or an Unsatisfactory being assigned to one of the Competencies and wishes to appeal it, the student must use the following appeal level process:

If a student disagrees with the Competency Director's decision and wishes to file a second level appeal, the student must use the following appeal level process:

If a student disagrees with the ASC's decision and wishes to file a third level appeal and final appeal, the student must use the following appeal level process:

