

Indiana University School of Medicine - Grade Appeal Process

If a student disagrees with a failing Course/Clerkship grade and wishes to appeal it, the student must use the following appeal level process:

If a student disagrees with the Course/Clerkship Director's decision and wishes to file a second level appeal, the student must use the following appeal level process:

If a student disagrees with the ASC's decision and wishes to file a third level and final appeal, the student must use the following appeal level process:

